

The Department of Africana Studies and Office of Community Relations Present:

THE AFRICANA WORLD

...a Historical and Cultural Mosaic

Join us for a year-long community celebration of Africa and the African Diaspora. This exciting series of programs, lectures and events is a collaboration between local higher education institutions and community organizations.

Notre Dame Co-sponsors:

- American Studies (John W. Gallivan Program in Journalism, Ethics & Democracy)
- Crossroads Gallery for Contemporary Art
- DeBartolo Performing Arts Center
- Department of Film, Television, and Theatre
- First Year of Studies
- History Department
- Multicultural Student Programs and Services
- NDCAC Educational Programming
- Notre Dame-Center for Civil and Human Rights
- Provost's Office
- Segura Arts Studio
- Snite Museum of Art
- University Communications

Community Co-Sponsors:

- Bethel College
- IU Medical School
- IUSB
- Center for History
- Providing Options
- Saint Mary's College
- South Bend Heritage Foundation
- South Bend/Mishawaka Convention and Visitor's Bureau

Schedule of events:
artsandculture.nd.edu

UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME